

Parades and Patriotism

Herald 5 Aug 1973

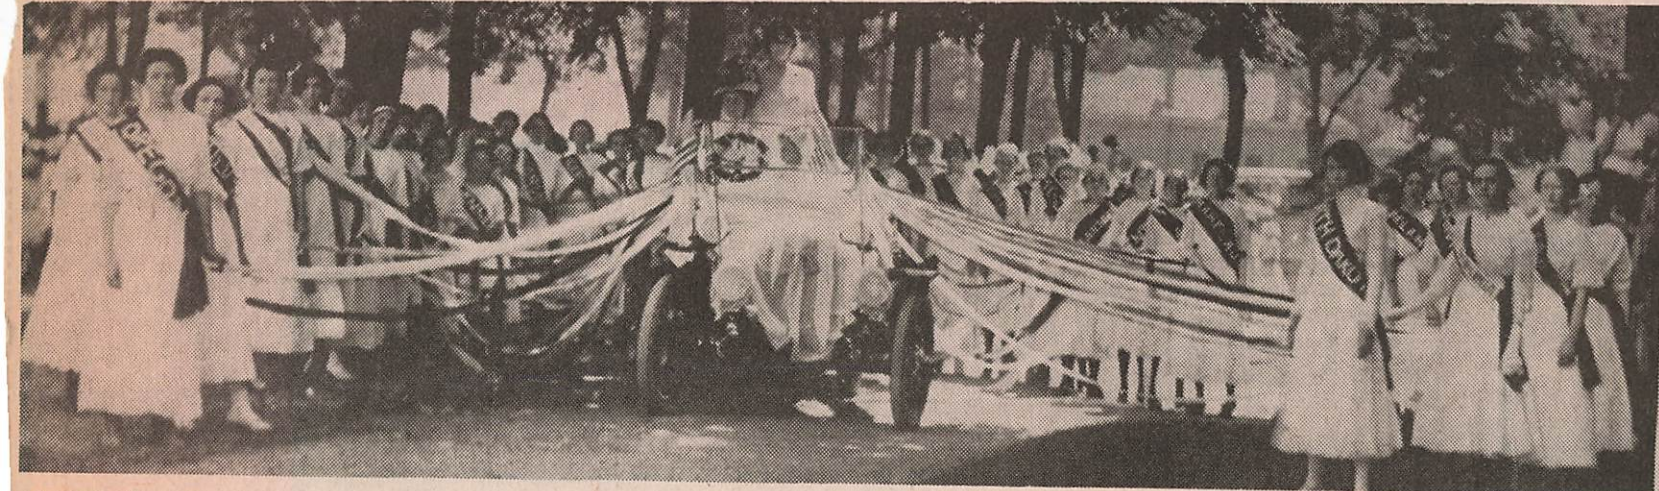

PRESIDENT WILLIAM HOWARD TAFT (right of center standing between Senator Reed Smoot and Justice George Sutherland) visited Provo in September 1909 and spoke in the Provo Tabernacle.

FOURTH OF JULY PARADE in Springville prior to 1890. George Edward Anderson photograph came through like an artist's setting. The dust of the street is visibly flying under the horses' hooves, in the picture where balance between form and space is perfect.

GODDESS OF LIBERTY, resplendent in "horseless carriage," is surrounded by girls representing the states in 1912 parade.
